ADVOCATE GENERAL.
From the —. Furnishing an explanation of the opinion offered by him formerly on the subject of the committal of Europeans to Goal and to the House of Correction and stating that the remedy suggested by the Honorable Court of Directors of a measure enabling the Magistrates to sentence to Goal Europeans convicted under the Police Regulations will not meet the case of Europeans sentenced to the House of Correction as required by the Act of 5th. & 6th. Wm. 4 Cap. 19 and that no measure of the Indian Government can alter the provisions of that statute.	20th. November 1841.	1	11th January 1842.	....	77
